

Maryland Defense Attorney Marc G. Snyder Will Represent Child Charged with Murder of Father

Criminal Defense Lawyer vows to defend client in case that could have wide-reaching influence.

Baltimore, Maryland (PRWEB) January 31, 2012 -- Baltimore Criminal Defense Attorney Marc G. Snyder has been retained to represent Robert Richardson III, currently facing charges in the shooting death of his father, Robert Richardson, Jr. (Harford County District Court Case No.: 4R00083325) Mr. Snyder, a former Baltimore City Assistant State's Attorney, was chosen to represent Mr. Richardson over a "who's who" of prominent Maryland criminal defense lawyers.

Mr. Richardson's case has garnered wide-spread attention, including reports in local newspapers, on television, and among those who frequent the Internet, resulting in communities of support on sites such as Facebook.

Mr. Richardson, 16, is charged with First Degree Murder, Second Degree Murder, and an associated firearm charge. He is being held at the Harford County Detention Center where he has been unable to see visitors, other than his attorney, Mr. Snyder.

The Law Offices of Marc G. Snyder has offices in Pikesville, Maryland and Baltimore City, and represents clients in all areas of criminal law. Prior to opening his own firm, Mr. Snyder was a Prosecutor with the Baltimore City State's Attorney's Office, and prior to that, an Associate with his father, Stephen L. Snyder's, law firm representing Plaintiffs in high-stakes civil litigation.

Mr. Snyder is the author of, "Saving Our Children: A Family Guide to the Juvenile Justice System" to be published Summer 2012.
